Chapter 1

Introduction

Simply put, signs and symbols are Divine Guidance.

Daniel 6:27
…and our Almighty Creator performs sign and wonders in the heavens and on earth

When you first begin to read signs and symbols, it will be as if you are learning a new language. In truth that is exactly what you are doing. You are learning the mystical language of the angels.

I suggest you keep a note book, write down the things that stick out, and then match them up to the information you will find in this book.

It can at times become very frustrating, but once you begin to understand the signs it will become easier and easier; you will become an eager student and want to learn more and more. The angels will keep teaching you and the signs will become fine tuned to your personal needs. You will be given the very best guidance, and oh, what MIRACLES you will experience just from reading…

… Angelic Signs and Symbols.

Along with writing down the signs and symbols you receive I suggest that you pray and perform Angelic Rituals. Call on the Archangel Uriel for guidance; so you may better understand the messages the angels are sharing with you.

To learn how to do Angelic Rituals, please read my book Angelic Ritual Prayer (Manifesting Miracles.)

The signs may not make sense at the moment, but I assure you the angels will reveal their message at the right time.

The angels will also speak to you in dreams. Keep a note book just for your dreams write them down and as the day goes along, log the events of the day and see how they relate to your dream.

I dreamt once of a bowl of white fluffy rice, the first thing that happened that day was that I received a phone call from a woman I had met a couple days early. White fluffy rice represents "warm friendship" we became very good friends.

Your dreams may be premonitions. Premonitions refer to future events that the angels are informing you about. A heads-up on information you will need.

Also pay attention to things that repeat. This is when the angels want to make sure you get the message.

The Almighty Creator will get messages to us and will send the angels to help us understand those messages.

Pay attention to picture, words and symbols; you are being guided.

The next pages are filled with signs and symbols, read them. Accept them as Divine Guidance, and watch your angelic connection grow. You will be in awe, from the messages you will receive from the Angelic Realm.

What wonders you will behold.

Once more...
Welcome
To the realm of the Angels

Coincidence, Synchronicity, And Omens

Coincidence

Just a Coincidence

Part of the Angelic Language is coincidences. A coincidence is when the angels align two or more events, and magic happens.

They are the note cards in the Angelic Language; letting you know that you are in the right place at the right time, and on the right track.

Example: (A day off)

It was my first day off since the holidays. I had been very busy with work, and finally decided to take a day off; after all it was January 16 already. That morning, as I sat drinking my coffee I decided to call my friend, I had not seen him since Christmas. I dialed his number, his phone rang, and he answered. I asked if he was working, he said "no I'm off today, you must have gotten my vibe, I was thinking of you last night and was going to call you this morning, to see if you were working." I told him I was taking the day off. He then asked if I would like to go to the art museum. They had a showing of Faberge, Tiffany and Lalique and it would only be there for the next two days."

Well, we went to the art museum and had a wonderful time.

Coincidence; we were both off that day, and we were both going to call each other.

Notes

Synchronicity

Synchronicity
A .K. A.
Meaningful Coincidence

This is one of my favorite ways that the angels talk to us.

There is absolutely no mistaking a synchronicity. They are events that are so astonishing: that they make you stop in your tracks and say WOW!

First let me explain what a synchronicity is. The word was coined by Carl Gustav Jung. Jung was a student of Sigmund Freud. However Carl Jung found truths which lead him into the spiritual realm.

Synchronicities are unrelated events that, without cause, come together to create the most extraordinary events. They are very meaningful coincidences. They involve timing and signs, making sure that people and events come together.

Synchronicities reveal an underlying pattern in which the angels give us guidance, which will lead us towards our true goals.

Example: (The Ladybug)

An example of a synchronicity is the day my second grand daughter was born. That morning I was getting dressed to go to the hospital; I saw a ladybug that morning, which reminded me of a friend I had not seen in several months. Every time I would see a ladybug my friend would show up.

Just one of those things; Right?

My daughter was to be induced the next day, but the baby decided to come a day early. When I got to the hospital, I stopped in the gift shop to pick up some flowers and a small stuff animal. I then got in the elevator and pressed the button for the maternity floor, the elevator started going up and then stopped at the floor, the doors opened and there standing in front of me was my friend. We looked at each other in complete shock; he is a construction worker, and that day was working at the hospital in the room right next to the elevator.

When I got to my daughter room, she saw I was still in shock, I told her what just happened and about me seeing a ladybug that morning; she laughed and held up a bag that the hospital had given her. There was a huge ladybug on it, we both just shook our heads and smiled.

Since that meeting in the hospital my friend and I make sure that we stay in touch, we both knew that, it was much more then a coincidence. It was a true Synchronicity; God and the angels wanted to make sure that we would not lose touch.

You should look at coincidences as little note cards, but please look at a synchronicity as a bill board with flashing lights, letting you know that you are exactly where you are supposed to be, and at that moment everything is in order.

Omens

Omens

Omens are the part of the Angelic Language, which foretells future events. One thing will happen, that foretells an event that will happen next. Omens do not cause good or bad events; instead it is just the angelic way of giving you a heads up on a future event.

Example: (The Feather)

Finding a feather, as if it were placed there for you to find; is an omen that you will be receiving a gift.

One day in late fall, my youngest daughter found out that she was pregnant; they had been trying for almost six years to have a baby, so this was blessed news indeed.

I decided to go and purchase a gift for the baby, (I knew it was going to be a girl) I knew this before she even found out she was pregnant.

39

As I walked into the department store, I looked down and there was a feather. I picked it up, and thought a gift from God. I put it in my pocket and entered the store. As I headed towards the children department, I passed the escalators just as an old client was getting off. I heard her call out my name, and say, do not tell me you don't remember me.

Of course I remembered her, we hugged exchanged greetings and then she asked what I was doing? I told her about my daughter, and that I was heading for the children department.

She decided to come along, so we could keep talking. As the two of us talked we also picked out some outfits. She picked out three different outfits all in different sizes. She knew I had two other grand daughters already. I looked at her, and said that the outfits were nice, but I was on a budget. She told me that she was going to check the prices and would be right back.

A couple minutes later she returned with a bag in her hand, handed it to me and said congratulations. Before I could say a word, she gave me a kiss on the cheek and said she had to go. Inside the bag where the three outfits.

(The Feather)

But let's take this one step farther; as I stood in line to purchase the things I had picked out for the baby, I noticed a mother and her young daughter in front of me. The mother had her arms filled with white blouses and school pants for her daughter. The daughter had a sad look on her face. I said hello to both of them and asked the mother why her daughter. was sad. The mother replied she was upset because she wanted a top, but the mother could not afford it with the purchase of all the school clothes she needed.

I then asked the mother if it would be all right if I purchased the top for her daughter. The mother looked surprised; after all I was a complete stranger. She said yes. I then asked the young girl to go and get the top she wanted. She came back with her top, I was next in line. Just then, another sale associate came and opened up the other register and called me over.

As she rang the top up, she remarked to me on what a great buy it was. The top was 70% off, even which was a very nice gift for me.

I had the sale associate put the top in a separate bag. I then handed the bag to the young girl and said, enjoy the top. The mother was still quite surprised, and thanked me once more.

Just as I was blessed by my client, I believe in passing blessing on.

JOHN 13:14
Jesus said: If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; you also ought to wash one another's feet.

JOHN 13:15
I have set examples for you so that you will do just what I have done.

With all my heart I believe that the mother of that young girl passed on a blessing to someone else; even if it was just a kind word that a person needed to hear. Blessing come in many forms, however, they always come with love.

The next few pages are some omens that the angels have taught me. They are true omens and I ask that you pay attention to them, they will help guide you.

Blessings In Disguise

Be Thankful
Blessings in Disguise

I would like to share a story with you. About how sometimes we do not understand why things go wrong in our lives, and then…

… God paints His picture for us.

It was when I was going through my divorce. I felt alone and overwhelmed at times. It was a very ugly divorce, (for 25 years, I was married to a very emotionally abusive man) and if he could have destroyed me, he would have. But by the grace of God, I am still standing. But that is a story for another time.

This story is about the car I was driving during that time; a Geo Prism, I felt like my life was being destroyed and I didn't know how I was going to put it back together, and if anything else could have gone wrong, it did. (So I thought.)

The transmission went on the car, I could not afford to fix it, and so I had to get a new car, (a new used car that is.)

I bought a used Honda Civic. About a month after I got the car, as I was driving to work, a man ran a stop sign; hit me broad side, rotating my car around, in a full circle.

At the moment this happened the only words that came out of my mouth were…

… "God how does this fit into your plan?"

A man was standing on a corner and saw the whole thing, he called an ambulance. Off to the hospital and of course the car was tolled away. The insurance company wanted to total the car out, which would have left me in more debt and with no car. I found a company that would and could fix it; I was relieved. As for me bed rest for a couple of weeks and physical therapy.

About 3 month after the accident my divorced was finalized and I was moving back to my house, My ex-husband kept his pension and I kept my home.
I was happy to be back home. The house meant a lot to me, my family helped me purchase it, and my family members are all passed on, so it was and still is a little bit of them, still here with me in my home.

When I returned the house was in shambles. My ex had left my dogs in the house whenever he went out and they pooped and urinated everywhere. He knew I was getting the house, so if he could not destroy me, he would destroy my home. There was black mold in the bathroom, and all the floors were ruined. The house reeked of dog urine, and I remember sitting in it, scrubbing the floors crying and asking God to give me strength to get through this. All the carpeting had to be pulled out of the house and I remember bleaching the living room floor 13 times just to get the smell out.

Several months went by, my house was slowing getting back together, the smells were gone, and so were the carpets, I had no flooring, but I did have my sanity.

My oldest daughter had just announced her engagement; I had no money and felt bad that I was unable to help with the wedding.

That is when God explained to me why I was in a car accident. I received a call from my attorney; the insurance company was ready to settle my case and I received enough money to replace all the carpets in my home, and had enough money left to purchase my daughter's wedding dress.

Sometime we need to see the bigger picture, the one that God paints for us. When thing go wrong, they are actually…
